BRIDGEWATER

Bridgewater CIO and Dartmouth alum Greg Jensen ('96) is coming to campus, and he wants to hear from you. Join us for an “ask me anything” conversation with Greg Jensen, CIO of the world’s largest hedge fund.

Sawtooth Bar

5pm, Monday, October 21st

Doors open at 4:30pm

Mix and mingle immediately following hosted by Bridgewater Investment Associates

We are looking for tenacious, obsessively curious students—and we want to know what’s on your mind! If you have a specific question for Greg, that you’d like him to engage with during the session, share it with us here.

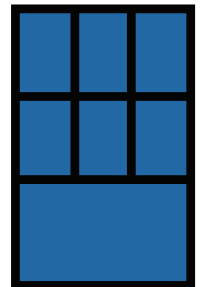

Bridgewater is one of the largest, most successful hedge funds of all-time, founded in 1975. We’ve built a unique understanding of global economies and financial markets used to generate high and uncorrelated returns (alpha) in systematic investment strategies.

Our Investment Associates (IAs) are the core team focused on developing and delivering alpha—the unique insights that enable us to beat markets and generate high and uncorrelated returns. Our approach is rooted in a fundamental understanding of the drivers of economies and markets and the systemization of those ideas.

Attendance is limited, so we encourage you to apply for a spot at the event quickly, using this interest form.

Greg Jensen, Co-CIO

Greg joined Bridgewater in 1996 after graduating from Dartmouth College with a degree in Economics and Applied Mathematics. As Co-Chief Investment Officer, Greg oversees Bridgewater's investment strategies and research efforts, and is integrally involved in overseeing Bridgewater's investment engine and investment talent. In 2010, 2011, and 2012, Greg was named one of business's rising stars in Fortune Magazine's "Top 40 Under 40," and in 2023, he was named to Insider's "AI 100: The Top People in Artificial Intelligence."

As Co-CIO, Greg oversees the systemization of Bridgewater's research into trading strategies, manages the development of proprietary investment management models, directs the design and implementation of client investment strategies, and publishes timely market understanding to clients and global policy makers via Bridgewater's Daily Observations.

Greg is dedicated to building a community of market thinkers and investment managers who can develop, systemize, and compound market understanding better than anyone else in the world. Over the past fifteen years, he has designed training, developed new research methods, and invested in cutting edge technology to make this vision a reality. Greg also won a gold bracelet at the 2022 World Series of Poker and is involved in charitable missions around effective altruism and the safe development and use of AI.
