

2023 DARTMOUTH UNDERGRADUATE ECONOMICS RESEARCH CONFERENCE

Rockefeller Center | Saturday, May 13

12pm- 1pm	Lunch & Social Hour
1pm - 2:20pm	Paper Presentation Session #1:
1pm - 1:20pm	Ashwini Narayanan, "Pandemics and Gender Disparities in Infant Immunization: Evidence from Covid-19 in India"
1:20pm - 1:40pm	Krishna Nair, "The Effect of Healthcare System Structure on the Income Elasticity of Healthcare Spending"
1:40pm - 2pm	Kira Hobson, "The Effect of Primary Schooling on Parent Labor Supply"
2pm - 2:20pm	Catia Farquharson, "Covid-19 Eviction Moratoria and the Rental Market"
2:20pm - 2:40pm	Coffee & Refreshments Break
2:40pm - 4pm	Paper Presentation Session #2:
2:40pm - 3pm	Sally Gai, "An Examination of the Immigrant-Native Canadian Earnings Gap in Quebec and Ontario"
3pm - 3:20pm	Ana Marquez Pereda, "The Comparative, Long-Run Effects of the Peruvian Mita on Household Consumption"
3:20pm - 3:40pm	Jacob Kingsley, "The Impacts of Chinese Investment in Africa in the 21st Century"
3:40pm - 4pm	Keso Kakachia & Mitchell Jubier, "The Effect of the Sunk-Cost Fallacy and Other Irrationalities in Penny Auctions"
4pm- 4:30pm	Coffee & Refreshments Break
4:30pm - 5:30pm	Roundtable: "Life After Dartmouth Economics"
	Albert Chen '20, Investment Associate, Bridgewater Associates
	Catalina Garcia Valenzuela '21, Research Assistant, UChicago
	Sarah Gertler '17, Ph.D Student, MIT

Come celebrate the Dartmouth Economics research community!

What is DUERC?

Organizers: Keso Kakachia '24, Genghe Zhu '23, TJ Parekh '24
Advisor: Professor Treb Allen

Dartmouth Economics Research Scholars (DERS) will host the Dartmouth Undergraduate Economics Research Conference (DUERC) on Saturday, May 13th, which seeks to encourage economic research among undergraduate students. The conference will feature 8 undergraduate economics students on research they have conducted through their culminating experiences. DUERC will also include an alumni panel on careers in economic research.